

Ethics and Eldercare Seminar “Working with Challenging Seniors”

Ethics is a system of moral values that guide our personal and professional decision-making process. For those working with older adults this essentially means doing the right thing and honoring the wishes of the decision maker. Hear how these principles apply to older adults who can occasionally be describes as “difficult clients”.

Wednesday, June 30, 2021

8:00-8:30am: Check-in & Breakfast

8:30-9:30am: Presentation

Presenters

Adrienne Green, LISW-S Patricia Schraff, CELA, LISW

Register by 6/28/21 noon at:
clookabill@lanternofchagrinvalley.com

1.0 HR. CEU: Approved by the
Ohio Social Work Board

5277 Chillicothe Rd. Chagrin Falls