

2022 Medicare Part D & Advantage Plan Comparisons

Compare Medicare Plan options and you could save money in 2022! The Ohio Department of Insurance has trained Geauga County Department on Aging Staff & Volunteers to offer one on one reviews at Geauga Department on Aging, 470 Center St, Bldg 2, in Chardon.

Appointments are available from Monday, October 18 through Friday, December 3. Call (440) 279-2130, Monday through Friday 8:00AM until 4:00PM, to schedule your appointment. Make sure to bring your list of current medicines to the appointment.

This year there are two evening presentations-
October 18 at 6:30PM at the Chardon Library
And October 26th at 6:00PM at the Middlefield Library
Contact the library to register.

For those who would like to review options for Part D or Medicare Advantage plans, seniors can do so online at Medicare.gov: from Oct 15 through Dec 7.

WHO WILL MAKE YOUR HEALTH CARE DECISIONS IF YOU ARE NOT ABLE?

Geauga County Senior citizens sixty (60) years of age and older, do you have Advance Directives in place? If not, join us for an informative free program to consider and make your plan. The Geauga County Bar Association Advance Directives Committee and Hospice of the Western Reserve will present information and answer questions regarding health care powers of attorney and living wills at the first scheduled meeting. They will also distribute the standard forms and return the following week with attorneys from the Geauga Bar, who will help attendees complete the forms and notarize them. This will allow seniors time to think about what they want and who they would want speaking on their behalf if they cannot.

The first meeting, the panel discussion, will take place at the West Geauga Library on Friday, October 8th from 11:00-12:00pm. The second meeting, the day the documents will be signed, will be held on Friday, October 15.

Seniors who wish to attend must registration with the Department on Aging by calling (440) 279-2130, by 4:30PM, Wednesday, October 6.
